Well presented three-bedroom home situated in a convenient Billericay location, within easy reach of the High Street, Mainline Railway Station and local schools. The accommodation is arranged over two floors and comprises an entrance hall with ground floor cloakroom, a light and bright living room to the front featuring a bay window, and a fitted kitchen to the rear with direct access to the garden. To the first floor there are two double bedrooms, a single bedroom and a family bathroom. Externally, the property benefits from a low maintenance rear garden which has been recently re-paved, providing a neat and usable outdoor space. Whilst there is currently no off-street parking, there is potential to create a driveway to the front, subject to the necessary planning consents, as seen with neighbouring properties.
